

HOPE IN THE VALLEY
EQUINE RESCUE AND SANCTUARY, INC.

Adoption Application

Name _____

Address _____

Home phone _____ Cell phone _____

Work address _____

Work phone _____ E-mail _____

Social security # _____ Drivers license # _____

Facility and care of the equine

Do you live on the property or do you plan to board? _____

How much land/acreage will the horses be pastured on? _____

Describe the barn and the number of separate stalls in the barn: _____

Describe the pasture and fence: _____

How many horses are on the property? _____

Do the horses get turnout in the pasture daily? _____

Is the property free of debris and trash that could cause injury? (Wire, metal etc. on the ground). _____

Do they have dry shelter in case of bad weather? _____

Do they have cover for shade in the summer? _____

How often do you feed grain and hay? _____

How often do you worm? _____

How often is farrier care done? _____

How often is dental care (float) done? _____

Describe your experience level and give a description of your capabilities with horses: _____

Will you be the one riding the horse? _____

If not, describe the ability of the rider: _____

Are you interested in a particular horse? _____

If not, what type of horse are you looking for? (Type of training, intended use, etc.) _____

Have you ever been charged or convicted of cruelty against any animal? _____

Please explain the purpose the adopted horse will have in your life _____

REFERENCES

Veterinarians name: _____ Phone # _____

Farriers name: _____ Phone # _____

Personal reference: _____ Phone# _____

HITVERAS does not adopt to beginners. The adopter must have a good working knowledge of horse care and be able to completely handle, tack up, and ride the animal to adopt. Beginner children are fine if the parent (adopter) is experienced and the horse is suitable.